MEMORANDUM FOR THE ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, OPC

SUBJECT:

1. Reference is made to my memorandum of May 18, 1949, addressed to the Assistant Directors, OSO and OPC, and the Chief, Inspection and Security, captioned "Security and Operational Clearance."
2. The Chief, Inspection and Security, has advised that you have requested an investigation of the above named Subject, whose true identity has been made known to me. I am advised further that this request was made in order to determine whether or not there might be reasons why the Subject should not be contacted for possible employment by your office.
3. Certain information developed by Inspection and Security negates the possibility of this individual's use by the Office of Policy Coordination. You are, therefore, requested to discontinue any further consideration of the Subject.
